HISTORY OF SETTING

Carton House, set on over 1,100 private acres of sweeping parkland was once the ancestral home of the Earls of Kildare and the Dukes of Leinster. Ancient woodlands, lakes and the meandering River Rye create the perfect backdrop for an awe-inspiring country mansion and golf courses.

This walled estate is steeped in the history of times past. While Carton House was built in 1739, Lady Emily Fitzgerald is credited for shaping the remarkable canvas that envelops our two championship golf courses. Working with landscape gardeners to restructure the grounds in the fashionable 'naturalist' style, her work became the model for many other Irish estates.

Today our championship golf courses are primed for fresh victories. We celebrate those who have gone before and the modern heroes of Irish golf.

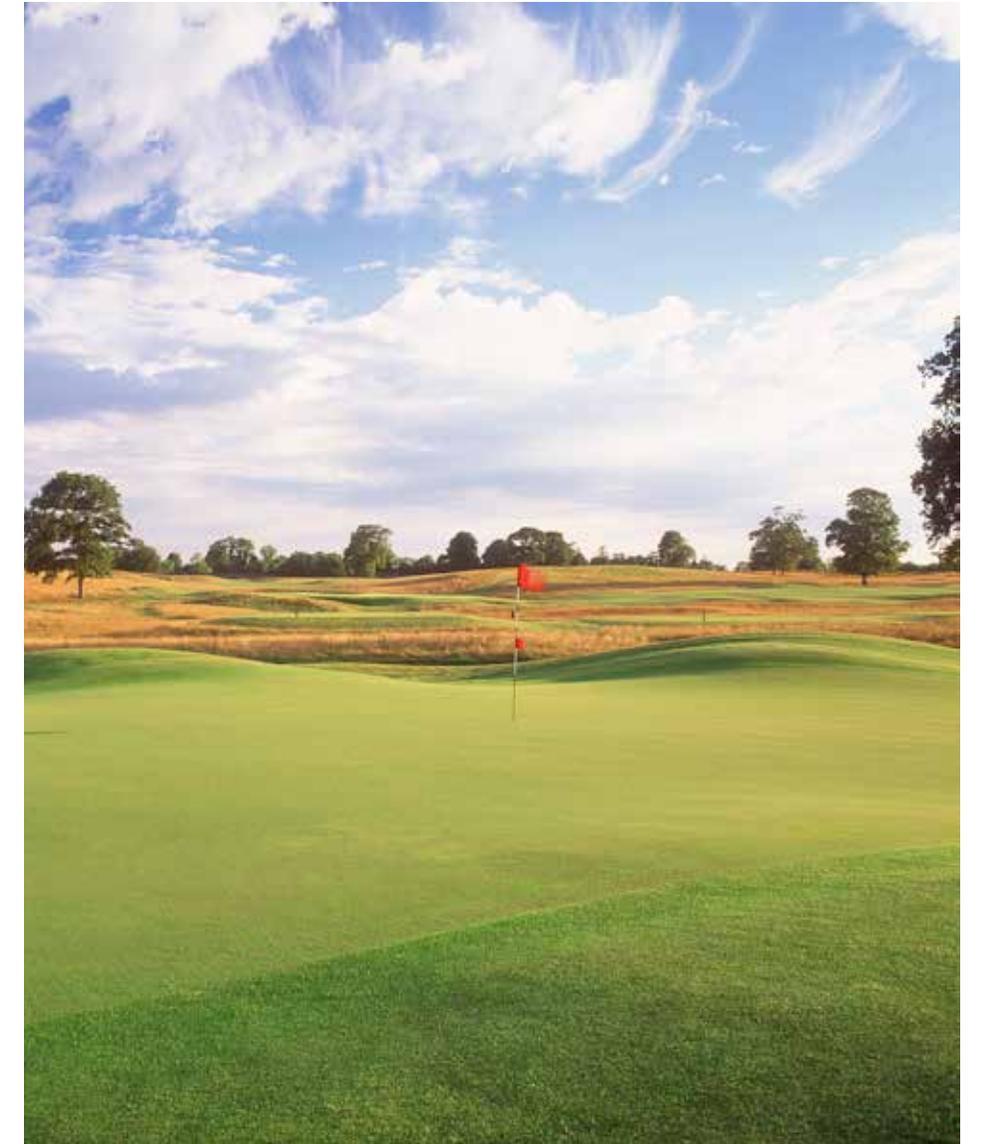

MONTGOMERIE

Inspired by some of the greatest links courses in the world and designed by Colin Montgomerie, this is a world-class par 72 inland links experience. Featuring 7,300 yards of greens and fairways as well as its famed cavernous bunkers, the Montgomerie tests even the most seasoned golfers.

Irish Open champions have met triumph here.

O'MEARA

To journey along this classic parkland course is also to journey through the beauty and history of Carton. Encounter the ancient woodlands, the Palladian Manor House, peaceful River Rye and the iconic boathouse that was infamously built for Queen Victoria along the way.

This course is deceptively pretty and serene. It was expertly designed by Mark O'Meara, twice US Masters champion, to challenge golfers of any level and experience.

BEYOND THE FAIRWAY

Home to the Golfing Union of Ireland (GUI) and its National Academy, Carton proudly provides the best golf practice facilities in Ireland, with state-of-the-art technological equipment to unlock the potential of your game.

You can access further expert knowledge and golf apparel at the onsite Pro Shop. The changing facilities ensure a comfortable start and end to your game. You can then unwind in our spa and wellness area complete with 18 metre swimming pool, sauna, steam room and jacuzzi.

RELAX AND UNWIND

A day on the course makes us feel alive. It is a feeling equalled only by the experience after you putt your last shot. Enjoy the afterglow of exercise in the pure and bracing Kildare air, as the sun retreats on the horizon and you reflect on the day's action with friends.

There are many ways to savour such moments at Carton. Recharge at the spa. Enjoy a nourishing and well-earned meal at one of our restaurants, or choose a private dinner experience for your people. Celebrate effort and toast success at The Carriage House or retire to the Whiskey Library in the Palladian Manor House to share anecdotes from the fairway with good friends. At Carton, the menu features many ways to relax.

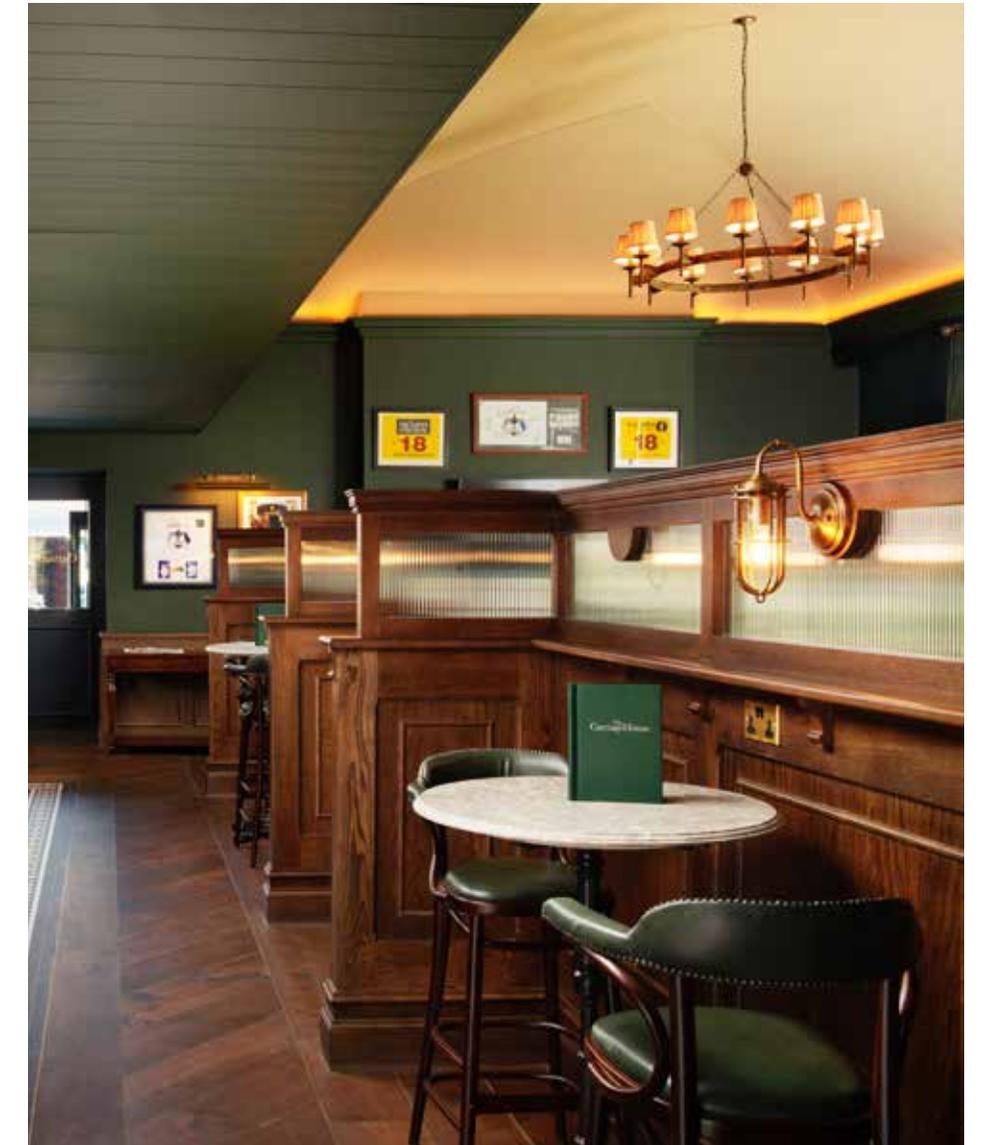

THE CARRIAGE HOUSE

Welcoming yet sophisticated, The Carriage House combines the atmosphere of a cosy inn and the air of a stylish social club. It is a wonderful place to relax with friends and family after golf while enjoying comforting dishes made with the finest of local ingredients. The Carriage House also offers an intriguing menu of artisan beers, fine wines and an array of both classic and rare liquors.

Like all things Carton, The Carriage House has a unique and authentic history. It once housed the aristocracy's fine carriages, and today it is also a treasure trove of artefacts and artworks of the previous golfing eras.
