

CARTON HOUSE
A FAIRMONT MANAGED HOTEL

Afternoon Tea

A 10% service charge will be applied to your final bill.

Welcome

As you join us for Afternoon Tea, you are seated in the rooms that originally entertained aristocratic visitors to Carton House. As you gaze up at the gilded ceiling of the Gold Salon, the exquisite coving of the Drawing Room, or out into the floral abundance of the Rose Gardens and beyond, these are the same views that have captivated visitors to Carton House for over 200 years.

Afternoon Tea first became a popular custom during the Georgian period, and was seen as the most stylish way for the Lady of the House to entertain.

You can almost hear the swishing of the taffeta skirts and laughter of Lady Emily and her guests as you enter this special and unique place.

Today we are reimagining this as a contemporary luxury experience. Enjoy the aroma of speciality Jing Tea, the finest tea sourced from artisan tea gardens across Asia. Take a sip from your bespoke bone china cup and be transported to days gone by, when tea was a ritual to be truly savoured, a special occasion to be shared with those closest to you.

Tea Selection

We are delighted to partner with JING for Afternoon Tea at Carton House, A Fairmont Managed Hotel.

JING travel the globe to find the single gardens and master producers that together produce distinctive teas of such clarity and purity that they take you on a journey.

The personal relationships they have with tea makers, whose skill and artistry is often passed down generations, enables them to offer you single garden tea that's better for you, the environment and for the people and communities who make it.
