The Heart of the House

Kathleen's Kitchen is a contemporary take on the tradition of culinary excellence at Carton House, A Fairmont Managed Hotel. From Lady Emily's letters, we know that the original housekeeper of Carton House was a friend and confidant. "Kathleen" fulfils this role for a new audience, taking care of her guests and creating a space where as well as your body, you nourish your heart and soul too.

This is a place that echoes the excitement of the kitchens in the 1700s, the buzz and activity of what was once the heart of Carton House. As you look around the old servant's kitchens, you can see the original features, the striking cast iron stoves that give the restaurant its unique character. You can just about imagine the flurry of activity before a dinner party in The House, or the servants sharing a drink together after hours under the warm glow of candlelight.

Barmbrack Recipe

Ingredients

200g currants
200g sultanas
300ml strong tea
50ml whiskey (or another 50ml tea)
25g mixed peel, roughly chopped
25g glace cherries, quartered
25g blanched almonds, roughly chopped
150g light muscovado sugar
210g plain flour
2 tsp baking powder
1 tsp mixed spice
½ tsp ground nutmeg
¼ tsp fine salt
1 egg, beaten

Method

Put the currants and sultanas in a large heatproof bowl, pour over the tea and whiskey, if using, then leave to soak for at least six hours.

Heat the oven to 180C, grease and line a 13cm x 20cm loaf tin. Stir the peel, cherries and almonds into the soaked fruit.

In a second bowl, whisk together the sugar, flour, baking powder, spices and salt, making sure you break up any lumps in the sugar, then stir into the fruit with the beaten egg.

Tip the loaf mix into the tin, smooth the top and bake for 90 minutes, until a skewer comes out clean. If the top looks to be going too dark or burning on top towards the end, cover with foil.

Take out of the oven, leave to cool in the tin for 15 minutes, then turn out on to a baking rack.
