

THE MORRISON ROOM

From the Sommelier...

“I am delighted to present to you a selection of the finest wines from our cellar, thoughtfully curated by our team to elevate your experience here in The Morrison Room and to help create unforgettable memories.

In my quest to craft a distinguished wine list, I focus on small production wineries, often family-owned, that foster a harmonious relationship with nature and exhibit a passionate dedication to their craft. My aim is to run a wine programme that competes with the best in the world.

Whether you are exploring new varietals or revisiting cherished favourites, I am here to guide you in finding the perfect selection.

We are committed to enhancing your dining experience and look forward to helping you discover the ideal wine.”

2021 Spatburgunder Leipolds Pinot Noir € 90

GEORGIA

Georgia's red wines, primarily made from indigenous grapes like Saperavi and Ojaleshi, are treasured for their bold, deep flavors and ancient winemaking traditions. Often produced using traditional qvevri methods—fermenting in clay vessels buried underground—they feature notes of dark berries, spice, and earthy undertones, offering a unique glimpse into one of the world's oldest wine cultures.
